

1. Making a Money Magnet

A money magnet is an object that is used to attract money. It will help to increase your vibration around money and clear out negative energy around you in relation to money.

Take an object that you want to turn into your Money Magnet. Ideally, it can be something that you can keep on you at all times, such as any crystal, any herb, any sacred thing, a necklace, a pin, or a ring .

Step 1: Cleanse the Object

Cleanse the object of any negative energy using any method of your choice. OR, imagine white spiritual light coming down and clearing the object or by keeping the object in sea salt (if possible), or putting the object under sunshine for a while or through Reiki symbols (if you are a Reiki Practitioner), etc.

Step 2 : State Your Intention

What is it that you want help with? You can use the object for general money issues or specific needs. Example intentions might be:

- * I want to raise my vibration around money.
- * I intend to earn Rs 50,000/1Lakh/3Lakh a month doing healing work or any other work which you're doing or starting a new.
- * I am now attracting the perfect home for the perfect price.

Hold the object, close your eyes, and state your intention out loud.

Step 3: Charge the Object

Now hold the object between both hands and send Money Reiki to the object.

That is, draw or visualize the Money Reiki symbols (1, 2 and 3) on it.

Step 4: Bless the Object

Say: "I now bless this object with the Money Reiki Energy. May it manifest what is in my highest good and the highest good of all concerned. Thank you. "Now you may wear / or keep the object near you on your purse or wallet. It can be recharged whenever you feel it is time or you have a new intention.

2. Money Reiki Box

The Reiki box or manifesting box is a tool that many people have used to great effect. We will do the same thing, only adding Money Reiki to the box. Creating the Money Reiki Box is similar to making a money magnet, only you will use a small box, preferably one you can personally decorate. It does not have to be fancy. A shoe box will do.

Step 1: Cleanse the Box

Cleanse the box of any negative energy using any method of your choice. OR, imagine white spiritual light coming down and clearing the object.

Step 2: Decorate the Box

Decorate the box using Reiki symbols, the dollar sign, or pictures of what you want to manifest. Use your intuition to guide you.

Step 3: Write Down Your Intentions

Write down up to three goals you want to accomplish with money. Write these down in present tense, e.g.:

- * I now make Rs 40 Lakh a year as a writer.
- * I manage my money easily and with joy.
- * I pay my rent not only on time but ahead of time.

Place the intentions in the box. You can also include pictures, newspaper clippings, and objects to the box that relate to your goals.

Step 4: Charge the Box

Place your hands on the box and send Money Reiki to it by visualizing Money Reiki Symbols 1, 2, and 3 on it.

Step 5: Bless the Box

Say: "I now bless this Money Reiki Box with the Money Reiki Energy. May it manifest what is in my highest good and the highest good of all concerned. Thank you." When worries come up later surrounding money, you can write them down on a piece of paper and put them in the box to let God or the universe take care of it. Periodically go through the box and remove those notes that have been completed.

For example, you may write on a note: "Please take care of my car payment."

3. Financial Blessing

The Financial Blessing is to be done on a specific issue of any money issue for you or your client ☞ Understand your or your client's problem and let him identify his issue.

These issues should generally have to do with money and financial problems as opposed to manifesting large sums of money for general, unspecified purposes. For example, rather than working on "I want a million dollars," a more reasonable and useful goal to work on would be "I want to pay my bills consistently and on time."

Step 1: Write it Down

Write the name of the client down on a piece of paper. Then write down the specific issue underneath their name.

Step 2: Send Money Reiki to the Issue

Place your hands on the piece of paper that you wrote the client's name and issue on. Send Money Reiki to the issue simply by visualizing Money Reiki symbols 1, 2 and 3 to the piece of paper.

Step 3: Place Issue in Box

Put the piece of paper in your Money Reiki Box that you use for clients. (Note: You may have multiple clients in the box at the same time.)

Step 4: Perform a Money Reiki Treatment

Perform a Money Reiki treatment on the client - either in person or via distance as described in the above section. This means, visualise sending Money Reiki to Root Chakra of the person.

Step 5: Send Money Reiki regularly for atleast One Week.

Then leave the client's issue in the Money Reiki Box for no less than one week. After a week, you can remove that client's piece of paper from the box and destroy it.

(Optional)

You may want to charge the box itself with more Money Reiki energy on a daily basis to increase the strength of all the financial blessings inside.

This is just one way of performing a Financial Blessing. You may experiment and come up with your own methods.

4. Energy Tithing (donation)

In traditional prosperity teaching, you are told to donate a certain percentage of your income to a charity or spiritual center. The idea is that by giving out money, you will be opening up the flow to receive money.

If you cannot donate money, Energy donation is a way to give back and help others by giving your time or energy.

It is my personal opinion that energy donation is actually more fulfilling and powerful than simply giving money.

When you donate energy, you must put your heart and soul into it. The energy donation is the practice of sending your love vibration out to the universe.

This can be done in the physical world, such as volunteering at your local charity, helping out a neighbor in need, or picking up trash when you take a walk on the beach.

Spiritual work includes meditation and prayer on behalf of others, energy healing, or other types of energy work.

Energy donation, even more so than traditional donation, gets you out of your own head and your own problems, and reminds you that there are other people out there who are worse off than you, people who could use your positive energy. You learn to be more grateful for what you have, and to spend less time whining about your own "poor" situation.

Your so-called "lack" of abundance truly comes into perspective when you put your attention on the homeless person down the street. So you don't have a 40-room mansion. Your one-bedroom apartment would sure feel like a mansion to that homeless person.

Energy donation can be harder than it looks. The more you practice, the more it becomes a good habit.

Here are a few easy techniques to get into the mindset of energy donation:

1. Spend a few minutes before bed praying or sending energy for the welfare of others. This can be for friends, family, the homeless, starving children, the world.
2. Do you spend time visualizing what you want to manifest? Here's a thought - instead of visualizing that you are in that mansion, take a few moments to visualize someone in need getting that mansion.

3. As you walk down the street, imagine you are sending a gentle rain of golden healing energy to everyone.

5. Giving Things Away

This concept is not new to Money Reiki. The idea is that you will clear a space for the new to come in by getting rid of the old. For example, if you need new clothes, go through your closet and get rid of everything that no longer fits or flatters you.

Go through your closets. Collect everything that you no longer need or want. Send Money Reiki to each object, with a blessing that the object will provide much help and joy to the person who will receive it.

Take the objects and donate to Goodwill or give to a friend. Send them off with love. Regularly get into the habit of using and recycling your stuff. It opens up your energy flow.

Outflow

Especially important for anyone looking for a job or running a business is the concept of outflow.

This simple principle works as follows:

The more outflow, the more inflow.

If you want a job, and you're having a hard time, increase your outflow. Meet more people, go to more networking events, hand out more resumes. (While you're at it, make sure you have a decent resume.)

If you own a business and business is slow, start putting that energy out there. Post flyers around town if you have to. Just get the energy flowing by getting your energy out there. Often what you'll find is that when you put your energy out in one arena, something magically comes back in another form. Remember to put Money Reiki on all your materials used in your outflow.

6. If I get a million dollars, then I can.....

When you ask a person what he will like to do with the lottery money or prize money, usually the answer is: I would give it away to charities that mean a lot to me, and really make a difference."

But the question then comes to mind, "Why don't you just do that NOW? What are you waiting for?"

"But I don't HAVE that much money," would be your answer.

Too many people put the cart before the horse when it comes to changing the world. There are a lot of people who have grand visions for changing the world once they "get a million dollars." Conveniently, they've now just postponed indefinitely the work they want to do, because they've now put up an insurmountable obstacle between themselves and the big goal.

The fix to this is quite simple: Start changing the world, NOW.

There have been many persons who had nothing but they changed the world. Was Martin Luther King a millionaire? How about Gandhi or Mother Teresa? How about Jesus or Buddha?

If you have a vision and a passion for a particular cause, then get out there and do something about it. By dedicating yourself to your vision, and putting it out there to the world, you will naturally attract other people to help and support this vision.

Besides, who says you need to spend your own million dollars in order to fund a noble project? Most non-profit organizations are built by donations they receive from individuals and corporations. Many businesses are built with venture capital, often from individual investors who serve as "angels" and provide money to grow the business. Don't wait until you earn the money yourself. If you need it, go out and ask for it.

Remember the saying: Do what you love and the money will follow. Commit now to your dream and take action on it. That more than anything "attracts" money, people, and resources to you. Love itself is the best attractant in the world.
